the investment professionals at his previous firm ING.

Saltarelli brings 17 years experience working closely with financial planners, dealers and researchers to Perennial.

John Rickus has been appointed as chairman of the placement agency and strategic adviser Principle Advisory Services, moving from his former role as trustee of the MTAA super fund.

Rickus joined the MTAA fund in 1995 and was the independent chairman from 1996 until late last year.

In the 10-year period that he was at the helm, funds under management at MTAA grew from $400 million in 1996 to $4.2 billion at December 2006.

Rickus brings more than 11 years as a trustee to Principle. He is a director of Adelaide Airport, where he chairs the audit and risk management committee, a director of Brisbane Airport Corporation and chairman of Flinders Ports – the owner of seven commercial ports in South Australia, including the Port of Adelaide. He is also the independent chairman of the audit committee of the Federal Court of Australia.
